

The NAB's attempt to silence satellite radio is no different than the same attempt to keep satellite television out of the market. They are afraid of competition. I say competition is what makes the US great. Don't let the NAB bullies push consumers around!